

Interview to Paweł Gryzanowski, a student of Polish origin, who attends the ITI 'G. Ferraris' in Naples, Italy, class 2<sup>a</sup> N.

M: "What's your name?"

P: "My name is Pawel."

M: "How old are you?"

P: "I'm fifteen years old!"

M: "Where do you come from?"

P: "I come from Suwalky, Poland."

M: "And.. where do you live now?"

P: "Now.. I live in Piscinola, a suburb of Naples."

M: "How is your family made up?"

P: "There is my mum Aneta, Domenico, my brother Giuseppe and I, of course!"

M: "Why did you come here, to Italy?"

P: "Because there were many problems of unemployment in Poland but my mum also came here to get married."

M: "What's your mum's job?"

P: "My mum is a housewife now, but at the beginning she worked as a caregiver. She doesn't like that job."

M: "What do you do?"

P: "I'm a student. I generally prefer staying at home 'cause I'm a lonely guy and I prefer friends on facebook to going out with them."

M: “ Have you had any problem with social relations?”

P: “Yes I had some problems at first because I didn’t know the Italians and I was bound to go to school at once and my schoolmates often teased me!”

M: “ Do you like living here now?”

P: “ Oh yes, I do. I like living here because there are lots of archeological sites and Naples has such an impressive, ancient culture . Everything is so interesting!

M: “What would you like to do in the future?”

P: “ In the future I wish to become a video game producer .”

M: “ Ok. This is the end of our interview. Would you like to say goodbye to our Polish friends?

P: “Cześć Chłopcy”

M: “ And what does that mean?”

P: “It means: Hello guys!”
